Hi Vince

The hot tub will come with a manual and warranty information card from Jacuzzi and they will receive upon delivery of the tub. Does that work for you? If not tell me what you need me to do

Warmest Regards,

Jeff Carroll

Subject: The Landing - Operation & Maintenance Material & Warranty Information

Good Afternoon,

We will be turning over Building A later this month with our first homeowner taking possession June 30th. The project has been successful to date with all the Trade Partners coming together, even during our most intense times during COVID-19 and the uncertainty it brought all of us. I'd like to start to close out this phase of the project with receiving the Operation & Maintenance Materials and Warranty Information so we can compile and turn the documents over to the new homeowners as each take possession of their beautiful home that you and your staff helped create for them.
